Dear Insured Person,

On leaving the scheme you will receive all your vested benefits, which are made up of the employee and employer contributions, any additional capital contributed by the foundation, and the vested benefits transferred from previous pension schemes as the opening balance, all including interest earned until the day of withdrawal or until a later day of remittance.

You are required to maintain your occupational pension benefits, except in the special cases listed below. We therefore need the name and address of the pension scheme to which your portable retirement funds will be transferred:

- a) This will generally be the pension scheme of your future employer (art. 3 FZG¹)
- b) If you will not be taking up a new post in the foreseeable future (art. 4 FZG), a bank which will open an account for your vested benefits

We will send you a final statement as a record of your vested benefits. A second copy of the final statement will be sent to your new pension scheme.

You may request a cash payout under art. 5 FZG in the following cases:

- a) If you leave Switzerland definitively²
- b) If you become self-employed and are no longer subject to mandatory occupational pension provision
- c) If your retirement benefits are less than your annual contribution (employee's contribution)

The documentary evidence needed in each case is specified on Form A. If you are married or living in a civil partnership, your spouse or civil partner is required to give written consent to the cash payout.

Important: the spouse/civil partner must sign the consent form in the personnel office at the place of work of the insured person, duly producing official evidence of identity (passport, identify card, driving licence, foreign national identity card), or have the signature certified by a notary.

Please complete and send Form A to us as soon as possible, making sure it is signed and enclosing a deposit slip for the remittance of the vested benefits and, where applicable, enclosing the required documentary evidence.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions. Please help us to avoid time-consuming explanations and to save money by reading the information above. Thank you in advance.

Yours faithfully,
